

Based in Upper Austria, WINTERSTEIGER AG is an international mechanical and plant engineering group with a global workforce of roughly 900 people. Our entire organization is geared towards consistent growth. WINTERSTEIGER is a world leader in field trials technology, thin-cutting, ski service & rental. To keep up with the demands of our continued expansion, WINTERSTEIGER is seeking applications for the following position(s).

We are looking for an enthusiastic candidate to join our team at our headquarters in Ried im Innkreis.

Head of Customer Service WOODTECH

Your responsibilities:

- Leading, organizing and developing the WOODTECH customer service department
- Assisting with the planning of trade fair appearances (trade fair planning, budget, etc.), newsletters, and other marketing activities
- Assisting in the design and implementation of sales campaigns
- CRM management for the preparation and evaluation of sales data (reports, analyses, etc.)
- Assisting with organizational projects – particularly SAP projects (central contact and interface for interdepartmental topics)
- Agreeing delivery dates with the production planning / materials planning departments
- Designing and assisting with price lists, order forms, and documentation management systems
- Identifying potential areas for improvement or optimization, and implementing improvements in these areas

Your profile:

- Business management qualification (from a business school, higher education institution, apprenticeship, university of applied sciences)
- Dedicated, with experience in a comparable leadership position
- Highly assertive with a proactive and flexible approach
- Practical experience in event and project management as well as project implementation is desirable
- Outstanding IT skills, particularly knowledge of SAP
- Excellent knowledge of English, other languages would be advantageous

What we can offer you:

Joining WINTERSTEIGER AG means joining a modern work environment in a successful global business. We offer a long-term position in a young, enthusiastic team, opportunities for professional and personal development, as well as the attractive benefits only a large business can provide. For legal reasons, we would like to make you aware that the collectively agreed gross minimum wage for this position is €34,010 p/a, but we are of course willing to pay more for the right candidate. Not only do we nurture your potential, we also offer a performance-based bonus and flexible working hours to suit your needs. Go your own way – with us.

We look forward to receiving your application!

WINTERSTEIGER AG, Dimmelstraße 9, A-4910 Ried im Innkreis Attn. HR Development/Marketing, E-Mail: personal@wintersteiger.at www.wintersteiger.com

WINTERSTEIGER
Thinking about tomorrow.