

Service Technician for Agricultural equipment m/f/d

Service Technician for Agricultural equipment m/f/d

Full time | Bradford, TN

WINTERSTEIGER is the worldwide market leader for agricultural research equipment. We are looking for a service technician/mechanic for our Bradford, TN location. This position requires good mechanical and electrical skills, good customer service skills, flexibility and travelling throughout the southern US.

Job description:

- This position will have wide variety of responsibilities including service of combines and planters at customer's locations
- Receiving new equipment from our factory, performing final quality check and set up at customer location
- Work with customers over the phone on parts orders and technical support
- Document issues with customer machines and review steps with customers to fix issues
- Planning of service and customer service trips

Qualifications:

- The successful candidate will have good mechanical skills, is well organized and can work in a small team
- Heavy equipment repair experience a plus
- Combine and planter experience a plus
- Be able to trouble shoot individually and in a small group
- Agricultural experience beneficial
- Valid driver's license
- Travelling through the southern US

Skills:

Welding | computers | electrical | hydraulic | organized | mechanical | customer support | phone support

Benefits:

- Health Insurance | Dental insurance | 401K
- Flexible spending account
- Paid vacation package
- Cell phone | Laptop
- Competitive salary for experienced candidate

Send resume to:

Fritz Hoeckner, WINTERSTEIGER Inc., 4705 W Amelia Earhart Dr, Salt Lake City, UT, 84116. An EOE.

